Psalm 11 Faith in the LORD's Righteousness

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>In the LORD I put my trust;

How can you say to my soul,

“Flee as a bird to your mountain”?

<sup>2</sup>For look! The wicked bend their bow,

They make ready their arrow on the string,

That they may shoot secretly at the upright in heart.

<sup>3</sup>If the foundations are destroyed,

What can the righteous do?

<sup>4</sup>The LORD is in His holy temple,

The LORD's throne is in Heaven;

His eyes behold,

His eyelids test the sons of men.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD tests the righteous,

But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates.

<sup>6</sup>Upon the wicked He will rain coals;

Fire and brimstone and a burning wind

Shall be the portion of their cup.

<sup>7</sup>For the LORD is righteous,

He loves righteousness;

His countenance beholds the upright.

MISSIONARY CORNER

Each week we focus on Missionaries and Organizations we support as a local church.

"Go and do likewise," Christ commanded after explaining the parable of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10. So they do. Samaritan's Purse travels the world's highways looking for victims along the way. They are quick to bandage the wounds they see, but like the Samaritan, they don't stop there. In addition to meeting immediate, emergency needs, they help these victims recover and get back on their feet. No matter where they go or what they do, they offer help and hope. To suffering people in a broken world, they share the news of the only One who can bring true peace—Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. After the storms last weekend, they went to Oklahoma and Arkansas, which were among the hardest hit locations. They will tarp roofs, cut downed trees, and clean up damage and debris, all while bringing comfort to those who are in need. Acting as the hands and feet of Jesus, they have opportunities to share the Gospel and offer peace in a time of crisis. Billy Graham Rapid Response Team chaplains will also be on the ground. Pray for their wisdom and protection as they minister to those who are suffering loss.
